DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on September 08, 2009 has been entered.

Response to Argument

Applicant's arguments with respect to claim 1-20 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-6 and 8-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Ficco et al. (US 2002/0054750).

Regarding claim 1: Ficco et al discloses a method of representing allocation of storage unit capacity within an audio/video (AV) recording device, comprising: identifying a quantity of AV program data stored on said storage unit (paragraph 0100); obtaining a storage schedule for new AV program data comprising of the first AV program data and the second different AV program data defined over a predetermined time period (paragraph 0116 and Fig. 21b); obtaining a deletion schedule for a plurality of old AV program data stored in the storage unit defined over predetermined time period (paragraph 0123-0124 and Fig. 21b); and producing temporally dynamic indicia representative of allocation of capacity of storage unit over predetermined time period in response to said quantity of AV program data, storage schedule, and deletion schedule (paragraph 0106, 0116 and 0123-0124), wherein predetermined time period is a future of time period from a current time of identifying a quantity of AV program data stored on storage unit. (paragraph 0124 and fig. 21c).

Regarding claim 2: Ficco et al discloses a method of claim 1, further comprising: displaying a pictorial representation of said temporally dynamic indicia on a display device in communication with said AV recording device (figure 12a-c).

Regarding claim 3: Ficco et al discloses a method of claim 1, wherein step of producing comprises: (a) selecting a time (paragraph 0123); (b) determining a storage configuration of storage unit in response to quantity of AV program data, storage schedule, and deletion schedule at selected time (paragraph 0123-0124); (c) repeating steps (a) and (b) to determine a plurality of storage configurations for a respective plurality of times (paragraph 0123-0124); and (d) combining plurality of storage configurations to form said temporally dynamic indicia (paragraph 0116 and figure 12a-c).

Regarding claim 4: Ficco et al discloses a method of claim 3, further comprising: successively displaying pictorial representations of plurality of storage configurations on a display device in communication with said AV recording device to define a graphical animation (figure 12).

Regarding claim 5: Ficco et al discloses a method of claim 4, wherein graphical animation comprises a pie chart (paragraph 0107 and figure 12).

Regarding claim 6: Ficco et al discloses a method of claim 1, further comprising: modifying a recording configuration of AV recording device in response to temporally dynamic indicia (paragraph 0123-0124 and figure 12); and re-producing temporally dynamic indicia in response to modified recording configuration (figure 12).

Regarding claim 8: Ficco et al discloses a method of claim 6, wherein step of modifying comprises: deleting an AV program stored on storage device (paragraph 0116).

Regarding claim 9: Ficco et al discloses a method of claim 6, wherein step of modifying comprises: archiving an AV program stored on storage device (paragraph 0124).

Regarding claim 10: Claim 10 rejected for the same subject matter as claim 1.

Regarding claims 11-13: Claims 11-13 are rejected for the same subject matter as claim 4-6 respectively.

Regarding claims 14-20: Claims 14-20 are rejected for the same subject matter as claim 1-2 and 5-9 respectively.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 7 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Ficco et al. as applied to claim 1-6 above, and further in view of Kaneko et al. (US 6,671,454).

Regarding claim 7: Ficco et al discloses all a method claim 6 limitation, further Kaneko et al. discloses the step of modifying comprises at least of: increasing compression ratio of an AV program stored on storage unit (Fig. 14); and increasing compression ratio of an AV program scheduled for storage on storage unit (Fig. 14).

It would have been obvious to one ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention was made to combine Kaneko et al. invention into Ficco et al. in order to free storage space for further AV data recording.
